

Michael Furey

Principal

Delta Research & Advisory

Michael started Delta Research & Advisory in 2012 to provide institutional quality quantitative research analysis and investment committee services to the Australian Wealth Management industry. His clients have ranged from boutique financial advisory businesses to large global investment management companies.

Prior to starting Delta, Michael was head of research at Suncorp from 2008 to 2012.

Michael has received a Master of Applied Finance and Bachelor of Mathematics (w Statistics). He is a Senior Fellow of FINSIA, Certified Investment Management Analyst (CIMA), and achieved his Certified Financial Planner designation in 2004. He currently consults or is a member of around twelve investment committees around Australia.